Next Saturday will see practically the ast of football in this section of the counry, the annual Army-Navy match in Yale game will make a fitting close of he year, and the contest should be one of the brightest and best of 1906. The Harvard team, trained almost solely with fy the plans of Head Coach William T. arranged. Reid, jr., and a little to abash those ritics who earlier in the year accused in, of lacking the power to assimilate he spirit of the rules.

It was said at one time by those who to teach a football team as well as Walter for ever since he entered the ring, of be-Camp. Mr. Reid has demonstrated to the world, satisfaction of the Harvard followers, who are by no means kindly critics, that 6:15—Ten Bible Study Groups—systematic, graded, and popular, following tea at 5:30. he can instruct a team. With his back earlier in the season, with Newhall, Lock-7:00-Studies in India, led by W. H. Formation of Team.

From the start his plans were formed uickly, and possibly and apparently all that bothered him was the question of ends and a center. He had for the wing ositions McDonald, Kennard, Burnham and Miller. McDonald appealed to him s the right man for one end, but it took a deal of vamping and revamping to get another wing man. Tarlac ran a greatly improved race, and in a long stretch drive was going away at the end. Marster hung on well, and easily outfinished Marksman. Latter appeared to be at home in the going, but quit very badly in the stretch. Waterboarer did not seem to like the going, and was never a serious contender. Waterway was always outrun.

cinct on the charge of highway robbery.

On November 3 it is alleged that Tobin held up and robbed John Davis of a dollar and a pint of whisky. Tobin will be tried in the police court to morrow morning.

Angler raced kindly and in a good position throughout, came away eleverly in the stretch, and was nicely in hand at the finish. Sonoma Belle, favored by the soft going, closed resolutely through the final quarter, and was as easily second best. Agile, very sluggish in the early stages, closed a big gap. Holmes tried to make a runaway race of it with Avanuer, and raced him to pieces in front. in the police court to morrow morning. Scratched-Cederstrome, 99; Monterey, 97; Bulwark, 93,

CANTILLON PRAISED

New Blood Likely to Have a Wholesome Effect.

Motto Is "Results"-Jennings, Chick Stahl, and Nationals' "Boss" Will Be Factors in Deciding the American League Baseball Championship of the Season of 1907.

New managerial blood in the American League should have a wholesome effect in next season's campaign, is the opinio of the New York Press. Not that the race lacked the exciting

WHAT PATRONS SAY!

Not that the race lacked the exciting and spectacular elements in recent years, but the introduction of new men, and consequently new methods, in Detroit, Washington, and Boston may result in putting those teams in the running in 1907.

Detroit chose wisely and well when she selected Hughey Jennings to handle the Tigers. Jennings is a capable man in
